“In Essentials, Unity; In Non-Essentials, Liberty; In All Things, Love”

Congregational Watchword for 2016

The Lord your God will make you most prosperous in all the work of your hands. - Deuteronomy 30:9 (NIV)

November 2016

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

I read a great article from the Rev. Tammie Rinker. She gave me permission to share it with you.

This morning's drive to Bible Study was shrouded in fog. It was a thick, clinging fog. I could barely see the other vehicles on the road. I drove through it carefully, headlights on, enveloped in the cloud. At Bible study, one of my friends spoke about the beautiful view she had this morning. She lives on the 18th floor of her building. She said it felt as though she were flying- beautiful white clouds below, blue skies above. It's all a matter of perspective. While I dealt with the difficulty in navigating through the fog, she delighted in the view from above.

It's easy to get lost in the difficulties of the moment. Challenges at home, community or the work place can feel overwhelming. In difficult circumstances we need a higher perspective. Indeed, God calls us to an eternal perspective. We can reach a new understanding looking 'higher' through prayer, inviting Jesus into our circumstances. Perhaps we need to ask the question- Will my current challenge look the same in five months, five years, fifty years, or longer? May we offer our challenges to God and delight in the 'view' from above.

Do you wear your name tag when you're in church?

Magnetic Style Name Badge

Each member and friend of the church has a name tag, but many are gathering dust. It's important (especially for a church with so many visitors) to wear your tag so that people can see you are affiliated with the church and also call you by name.

Does the clip on the name tag bother you (too hard to clip onto clothing, etc.)? Would you rather use a name tag with a lanyard? Perhaps one, like the one shown above, that uses magnets so there's no chance of crimping your clothing?

We encourage you to wear your name tag each Sunday... please let Pastor Dawn or the church office know if you would like an alternative to the clips that would encourage you to wear your tag.

Prayers

...for the Dahl family on the death of 16-year-old Olivia

..for those with health concerns: Harry Maher, Jim Sokolowski, and Jock Whitacre

...for Dave Olson, recovering from heart surgery

..for Vicki Schult and Ceci Anschutz as they continue cancer treatments

From Sally Pfeifer at Sister Bay Moravian Church:

We are finalizing plans for a mission trip to the Moravian Medical Clinic in Ahuas, Honduras from January 20-29, 2017!

On the trip, we will be assisting the local staff with small construction projects, the infant feeding program and some medical work if so trained. All hands are welcome and if skilled construction people such as plumbers and electricians are available, special projects will be planned for our week there. Clinic Director Rick Nelson will meet us at our first arrival in Honduras, San Pedro Sula, and escort us to Ahuas and back after our stay there. Lodging and meals are on site at the clinic in the guest house. We hope to carry needed medical supplies with us on the trip.

As of this date, we have 6 people booked from the Sister Bay and Sturgeon Bay Moravian Churches. We are continuing to raise funds for the travel costs, which are estimated to be approximately $2000 per person. Sister Bay Moravian sponsored games at Fall Festival and a Chicken Dinner on Wednesday, October 19th to benefit the Ahuas Clinic mission trip. Any donations of time at events or money are greatly appreciated! Rick Nelson will also be giving us an idea of supplies that we may be able to transport as well as financial needs for projects at the clinic.

The ADVENTURE is on!

On Saturday, December 3, the Ephraim Moravian Church will again participate in Christmas in the Village with tours of the church, displays and the great Sweets for the Holidays Bake Sale! G.G. Paschke and her crew will be assembled to receive your baked goods, gaily decorated, that Friday, December 2 to ready them for the sale.

Granny's Christmas Attic will delight you with many old-fashioned and wondrous Christmas decorations to purchase. Vicki Maynard is Granny's helper.

Ingrid Halvorsen cannot help with the making of the Moravian stars this year; want to learn how to do them and help at the ADVENTure? Ingrid will teach you and has many supplies left. Give her a call at 854-9616 if you can help.

Piggery Fundraiser!

To date, our Harvest Supper fundraiser has raised $1,817 for the Uganda Moravian Church to start up additional piggeries!

We auctioned off two of the Charles Peterson prints donated by Jane Olson's estate. The remaining print, "Ephraim Winter," is available, minimum bid of $500 (it can be found right now on eBay from $900 to $2,000 and on-line galleries for even more). It was painted in 1980, and it is rare to find the prints for sale.

This numbered and signed print (143/850) is beautifully framed and can be viewed in our Fellowship Hall during daylight hours.
