Have No Anxiety

Have no anxiety about anything, Xanax is at hand. We live in a Xanax type of world. We are anxious, uptight, and afraid. More people suffer from depression now than in any time in history. Life can be a pressure cooker of demands: of our work, our families, our finances, our children. We live in dread of failure. Given all of this, it seems simpler to avoid life rather than to live it. How convenient it is to rely on gimmickry that is so enticing. We fall prey to bromides which promise to relieve us of our discontent. All of this bespeaks the fallenness of humankind.

But there is that "still small voice" which beckons to us: "Have no fear little flock, the Lord is at hand." This is no ordinary promise. Our Lord has annulled our anxieties. We have been given the promise of a new life. The peace of God, which passes all understanding, WILL keep our hearts and our minds in Christ Jesus.

It's not all up to us. We can let go. We are not in charge. We can trust that God is in control. In that we can rejoice and give prayerful thanksgiving.

-Pastor Dan G. Olson
