Scripture Reflection: Humility – Barbara Axelson

Humility reminds us that God alone is in charge

Paul, who once was arrogant, was humbled and did indeed have a hard life serving God - but he didn't moan about it, although he certainly was aware of it.

But he fought the good fight. That's what we must do. Finish our race, whatever it turns out to be and keep the faith, because faith is our source of energy and light in an increasingly dark world.

Strive to be the opposite of the Pharisee- we are all sinners and it is our great peril that we pretend otherwise!
