Do We Practice the Golden Rule? - Barbara Axelson

We are told in Ephesians to live for the hope of Christ's glory! In so doing we are sealed in the Spirit. When something is sealed, it is permanent, not a passing whim. Paul prayed for his friends that a spirit of revelation and true enlightenment would be within them. How much we need that! To realize that Jesus is above all power and dominion!

In Luke we are told of the Beatitudes - blessings for the poor (we are all impoverished in some way, even if we have money!) and for those who hunger for many reasons, those who weep (who hasn't wept?), and those who are shunned as followers of Christ.

Coupled with the blessings are the Woes - to those who are sated, the revelers, the conceited.

To live a truly blessed life, we are to be kind to everyone- all can follow the golden rule- do to others as you would wish to be treated. Sounds easy- not so easy. Do it anyway!
