

The Lord's Supper in Celebration of Martyr John Hus

Congregation Standing)

The Lord be with You
And also with you.

Let us Pray: We are grateful, O Lord, for the life and witness of John Hus. We remember the sacrifice he made to speak the truth. We remember that he was faithful in the face of certain death. We remember that his martyrdom gave life to the church from his time to ours, and, it is our fervent hope, life for the generations to come. We, his spiritual heirs covenant with each other, to continue his legacy. Amen.

Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night he was betrayed, took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said: Take, eat, this is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.

As the bread is served, we will be in meditation as hymns are played.

(When the bread has been served, the communicants will stand)

Our Lord Jesus Christ said: Take, eat; this is my body which is given for you.

SILENT PRAYER

By your divine presence, by the holy sacraments, by all the merits of your life, sufferings, death and resurrection,

Bless and comfort us, gracious Lord and God. Amen.

In the same way, after supper our Lord Jesus Christ took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Drink from this all of you; this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sin. Do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me.

As the cup is served, we will be in meditation as hymns are played.

Our Lord Jesus Christ said: Drink from this, all of you. Do this, in remembrance of me.

SILENT PRAYER

Christ, the Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world;
Grant to us your peace. Amen

Let us Greet one another in the name of the Lord.
